DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 2, 5, 6, 10, 14, 17, 18 and 21 – 28 are pending in this application.
2. The finality of species type election/restriction requirement has been withdrawn.
3. The election/restriction requirement is proper because Applicant made several amendment and added several new claims which, in fact, never been examined.
4. It is requested that Applicant should carefully review history of the prosecution to see the date of original restriction requirement.
5. A new restriction requirement has been listed as follow:

Election/Restrictions

6. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 2, 5, 6, 10, 14 and 21 – 26, drawn to determining at least one geographic area served by each of a plurality of receiver units wherein displaying the unique ID that identifies the receiver unit to a plurality of end viewers served by the receiver unit so that the ID is displayed on a television to each of the end viewers; each end viewer communicate information including the ID displayed to the end viewer and the geographic area where the ID was displayed to a central system; and identifying at least one geographic area served by the receiver unit having the particular ID, classified in class 707, subclass 104.1.
 - II. Claims 17, 18, 27 and 28, drawn to determining at least one end user characteristic associated with a plurality of end users served by a distribution device wherein each end user within a subset of the end users to communicate information including the unique ID that was communicated to the end user and at least one end user characteristic which characterizes the end user to a central system, classified in class 709, subclass 203.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions as listed in Group I and II are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct if they do not overlap in scope and are not obvious variants, and if it is shown that at least one subcombination is separately usable. In the instant case, subcombination has separate utility such as Group I teaches each end viewer communicate information including the ID displayed to the end viewer and the geographic area where the ID was displayed to a central system and identifying at least one geographic area served by the receiver unit having the particular ID while Group II teaches determining at least one end user characteristic associated with a plurality of end users served by a distribution device. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

The examiner has required restriction between subcombinations usable together. Where applicant elects a subcombination and claims thereto are subsequently found allowable, any claim(s) depending from or otherwise requiring all the limitations of the allowable subcombination will be examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. See MPEP § 821.04(a). Applicant is advised that if any claim presented in a continuation or divisional application is anticipated by, or includes all the limitations of, a claim that is allowable in the present application, such claim may be subject to provisional statutory and/or nonstatutory double patenting rejections over the claims of the instant application.

Restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper because all these inventions listed in this action are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious search and examination burden if restriction were not required because one or more of the following reasons apply:

- (a) the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art in view of their different classification;
- (b) the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art due to their recognized divergent subject matter;
- (c) the inventions require a different field of search (for example, searching different classes/subclasses or electronic resources, or employing different search queries);
- (d) the prior art applicable to one invention would not likely be applicable to another invention;
- (e) the inventions are likely to raise different non-prior art issues under 35 U.S.C. 101 and/or 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse. Traversal must be presented at the time of election in order to be considered timely. Failure to timely traverse the requirement will result in the loss of right to petition under 37 CFR 1.144. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which of these claims are readable on the elected invention.

If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which of these claims are readable upon the elected invention.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
